

2008
Environment
Technology Transfer Awards

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS

2008

Michalene Reilly

Hoosier Energy Rural Electric Coop., Inc.

Jack Preston

SCANA

Dave Michaud

We Energies

Developing the rationale for and securing a host site to conduct a toxicological investigation of the potential health effects of power plant emissions.

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS
2008

John Dominey, John Jansen, Larry Monroe,
Justin Walters, Dwain Waters
Southern Company

Hosting a detailed examination of mercury chemistry in power plant plumes and for providing in-kind support and scientific expertise.

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS

2008

Lou Hosek

American Electric Power

Michael Herz

Pacific Gas & Electric Company

Applying EPRI information to develop and use radio frequency safety training tools.

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS

2008

Doug Fulle
Boyd Vaughan
Oglethorpe Power

Using EPRI's PRISM analysis to develop a strategic plan for addressing the corporate challenges posed by potential greenhouse gas reductions.

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS
2008

Frank Dombrowski

We Energies

Using EPRI's reference handbook to conduct high quality soil vapor intrusion field studies at former manufactured gas plant sites.

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS

2008

Keith Finley, Allen Stowe

Duke Energy

Jack Preston

SCANA

Using EPRI information to assist the state of South Carolina in a revision of its ambient water quality criteria for arsenic.

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS

2008

Russell Noble
Southern Company

Providing information to EPRI members and EPA
regarding cooling tower retrofits as part of the 316(b)
Phase II rulemaking process.

TECHNOLOGY
TRANSFER
AWARDS

2008

Kyle Davis
PacifiCorp

Organizing, promoting and communicating the results of the Collaborative Analysis of CO₂ Policy Impacts on Western Power Markets project.